DECUSSATA

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1.2 million (Office of National Statistics 2000). The number of people aged 65 and over is projected to increase to 6.5 million by 2020, and the number of people aged 75 and over to 4.5 million (Office of National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to develop strategies to meet the needs of the ageing population. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for ageing, which sets out the government's commitment to improve the lives of older people. The strategy is based on three main principles: (1) to ensure that older people have the opportunity to live independently and actively; (2) to ensure that older people have access to the services and support they need; and (3) to ensure that older people are treated with respect and dignity.

Andrean High was established in 1959 by the Most Reverend Andrew G. Grutka, Bishop of Gary, as a co-institutional school. It is located on about 30 acres of land, just outside the City of Gary.

This school of approximately 1560 students is staffed by the Basilian Fathers, the Sisters of Saints Cyril and Methodius, and Christian laymen and women. It is administered by one principal who is assisted by two vice-principals, one for the boys and one for the girls.

The objective of Andrean High School is the development of its students into well-balanced personalities, directed toward supernatural as well as natural truth, so that they may live and work as true followers of Christ. This objective is well defined in the school's motto, Magister Meus Christus, that is, "Christ is my Teacher."

Seniors — Sentimental At The End, But Proud To Be Andrean Graduates

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Derrick Dudash, Treasurer; Marilyn Reed, Vice-President; Barb Ornelas, Secretary; John Kochis, President.

My dear Seniors,

You were only freshmen in 1963 when I wrote my parting message to Andrean's first graduates. At that time your own graduation seemed so far away; it seemed far away to me and, I am sure, an infinity away to you. But, all of a sudden, it is here and tonight I am writing a farewell to you, Andrean's fourth graduating class.

From my vantage point of years, I think it only fair to tell you how speedily time does steal away from us. The pace of the past four years has really been slow-motion compared with that of the years ahead. As you grow older, you will find each year vying to out-race its predecessor.

I mention these things only as a prelude to my final word of advice before you leave Andrean: the world does not wait for laggards. You must work fast; you must seize opportunities; you must set your sights now and doggedly pursue them. Otherwise, you will see time and opportunities pass you by. And these pass only once.

You must reach out and capture the opportunities as they cross your path. You cannot sit back and wait for them to single you out. It is true that success or failure rest in your hands, but success is only for itching hands. It is less poetic but more realistic to change Shakespeare's "some" to "none" when he says, "Some have greatness thrust upon them." Greatness belongs rather to those who take seriously the sage counsel of the ancients, "Carpe diem!"—"Grasp the opportunity!"

May God bless you. You have been a fine class. So, to a truly fine class I wish true success—true success, I say, because true success will make the world a better place because you lived in it and, at the same time, it will perfect you for eternal success with God forever.

Seniors . . . So Much To Do In So Little Time

Swinging

Wide-eyed freshman days . . . orientation, our own Christmas dance, gym classes, and Armageddon melted into the assured life of a sophomore . . . sock hops, Fine Arts Day, the plays, Field Day, and drivers' ed. all led to the thrill of being upperclassmen . . . excursions, Student Council elections, Junior Day, varsity sports, and the spring dance, "Ebb Tide". These are memories climaxed in our Senior Year. Memories of leading and following, watching and participating, ending four years at Andean, but not the friendships made here.

Crossing the pier at "Ebb Tide," the junior spring dance, are John Bushemi and Sue Naddy, Kathy Kolakovich and John Kochis, Judy Huber and Jim Babinscak.

Eugene Peters, who earned a perfect SAT math score, gets a little advice from Fr. Abend.

Charm, becoming to a queen.

As Homecoming draws near.

Homecoming '65

Her reign has begun!

The hustle and bustle of Homecoming 1965 was in full swing as October 30 drew near. The five lucky finalists for Homecoming Queen were announced: Bonnie Burns, Peggy Hush, Linda Pauer, Mary Povlinski, and Cindy Ramirez. The final touches were being made on the two floats that were to be the highlights of the eighty car caravan. The seniors constructed a castle of flowers that carried the queen and her court. The second float, a train, was the masterpiece of the combined efforts of the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen.

Our Fighting '59'ers gave us another victory to be proud of as they defeated St. Francis DeSales 27 to 0!

An excited crowd, a blaring band, a spirited football team, and anxious cheerleaders set the scene for the traditional homecoming ceremonies. The spirit of '66 was momentarily hushed as Dave Masti announced Cindy Ramirez, Andrean's 1965 Homecoming Queen. Mitzie Vonderhaar, last year's queen, crowned her and presented her with one dozen long-stemmed gold roses.

Homecoming activities were climaxed that night by a dance held in the gym. The highlight of the evening was the formal presentation of the Queen, her court, and their escorts; Greg Burwinkel, Derrick Dudash, John Kochis, Dave Kotulak and Tony Trapani.
